

COMMITMENTS OF A GREAT COMMISSION COLLECTIVE

COMMITMENTS OF A GREAT COMMISSION COLLECTIVE

As an expression of our desire to become a Great Commission Collective church and with the belief that unity and participation are necessary for ministry partnerships, we commit to the following:

We are committed to a shared ministry philosophy.

- We commit to uphold the doctrinal statement of GC Collective.
- We commit to exemplify the distinctives of a Great Commission church.
- We commit to apply ministry through the GC Collective Common Expressions of Ministry.
- We commit to implementing an intentional disciple-making process consistent with the GC Collective Statement on Disciple-making.

We are committed to participate in shared Kingdom work.

- We commit to participate with GC Collective and its churches in the activity of church planting.
- We will contribute 5% of our annual budget to church planting.
- This percentage will be divided with 2% forwarded to GC.
- Collective for church planting administration and resource and 3% held by our church for church planting projects and commitments.
- We commit to participate in the ongoing training and connection activities of GC Collective. When able, our Senior Pastor, staff, and other key leaders will attend and participate in various training, seminars, conferences, etc. deemed appropriate by GC Collective.
- We commit to collaborate with GC Collective partners in common missions endeavors.
- We will partner with other GC Collective churches as they pursue Great Commission work that is consistent with our local church strategies and priorities.
- We commit to participate with GC Collective until an agreed upon point of separation or dissolution.

THE COMMITMENT

Believing that God has brought us to this point of fellowship, partnership, and purpose, we agree to these necessary commitments to become a GC Collective church. Furthermore, we understand that the failure to keep these commitments may result in the forfeiture of member status in GC Collective.

I / we have read and agreed to these commitments.
